ENDA Graf Sahel has contributed with a holistic approach to significantly shift power relationships and labour division within the communities enabling womxn to create and participate in fishing regulation committees.

How evidence and research can bring climate justice for rural women

DR. NICOLINE DE HAAN
Director CGIAR Gender Platform

CGIAR's Gender Platform strengthens research and innovation on methods and tools to monitor and promote transformation of gender norms at scale, ensure greater gender equity in the context of food systems transformation and achieve gains in women's empowerment and nutrition.
